

St. Luke's Women's Fitness Celebration Artwork Fun Facts

Last year we asked you to “Shine Out Loud.” This year we want you to “Feel the Joy Rising.”

We are in love with this year's art because it really captures the excitement of our Start Line, features the great city of Boise, and its brightness is sure to put a smile on your face.

Register today to get our incredible event shirt. If you are unsure about your schedule, register anyway and we will save your shirt and race number for pick-up following the event.

Fun facts about the Celebration Art:

- Our tagline “What Do You Celebrate?” first appeared on the 1999 artwork.
- Since 1999, Celebration event art has been created by Tamara Shore's Design.
- The 2000 event artwork featured a painting by Evansville, Indiana artist Cedric Hustace.
- The “Wild Woman” was last featured in the event art in 2001.
- The first Tiny Tot t-shirt came out in 2004.
- The Women's Show started to get its own specific art design each year starting in 2006.
- The 2009 artwork was inspired by the incredible downpour of rain at the 2008 run, walk & stroll.
