

Kim Lewis

Kim Lewis is all about living your passion and her passion is women helping women succeed. To this endeavor, she is co-owner of Idaho Bag Lady, a store providing stylish handbags, shoes and jewelry that are changeable for the discerning customer. She is also the CEO and Founder of the Idaho Business Women's Network and Empowering Women Conference/Retreat. These organizations focus on building the personal, professional, home and family life of women throughout the Treasure Valley. Our mission is "Empower a Woman and Miracles Happen."

Kim is utilizing her abilities as a national and international speaker, a consultant, and coach to create an empowerment program for women called "Prepare to Soar – Your Journey to Live Life Abundantly." She is marketing the program throughout the Treasure Valley. Kim is also one of the recipients of the 2010 Idaho Business Women of the Year.
